

House Resolution No. 779

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize a remarkable young Missouri citizen whose efforts and accomplishments have made her a source of inspiration for all those around her; and

Whereas, Melondy Ann Hall of Holden, Missouri, has distinguished herself by being selected as a Joanne Breckenridge Scholar and will represent the Fourth Congressional District during the Missouri Federation of Republican Women's Annual Legislative Day when she visits the Missouri State Capitol on March 11, 2003; and

Whereas, seventeen-year-old Melondy Hall is a senior at Holden High School, where she has been an active member of the National Honor Society, Students Against Destructive Decisions (formerly known as Students Against Drunk Driving), the Octagon Club, and Family, Career and Community Leaders of America; and

Whereas, Melondy Hall has earned the admiration of many as the recipient of academic achievement awards in math, American government, business law, and Spanish; as the 2001 Holden Fall Fiesta Miss Congeniality; and as the 2002 Eagle Ball Princess; and

Whereas, Melondy Hall has worked in the Christmas Store, has collected stuffed animals for the local police and Survival House, and has participated in Johnson County Republican campaigns and activities; and

Whereas, Melondy Hall is a part-time employee at a local café and is often found at the Johnson County Courthouse assisting her grandmother, Elaine Marsh, who is the Johnson County Public Administrator; and

Whereas, Melondy Hall's future plans include attending college to prepare for a career in law and social work:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Melondy Hall for her selection as a Joanne Breckenridge Scholar, and in further wishing her continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Melondy Ann Hall, as a measure of our esteem for her.

Offered by Speaker Catherine L. Hanaway
District No. 87
